

WEDDING BELLS

WOODS—IVES.

The wedding of Miss Marie Ives, of Granville, and Mr. David Woods, popular young member of the well-known Fairfield family, was solemnised in St. Mark's Church of England, Granville, on Saturday afternoon, December 7.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ives, and the bridegroom the second youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Woods, of York Street, Fairfield.

The bride made a charming picture in white lace, featuring long sleeves, heart-shaped neckline, with a tulle veil (donned by Mrs. E. Jackson) held in place by a tiara of gardenias. Her bouquet consisted of gladioli and gardenias.

Miss Edna Ives, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and chose fuchsia pink lace with picture hat to tone, and she carried a bouquet of gladioli and arum lilies.

Mr. William Woods, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where about forty guests were entertained at the wedding breakfast. The customary toasts were enthusiastically honored.

Afterwards, the young couple left for the honeymoon, the bride travelling in navy blue romaine, embroidered with beaded flowers, and wearing navy blue accessories.

Their future address is Lackey Street, Fairfield.
